With a brand new main venue – the Beechwood Pavilion – up at Great Ormond Street Hospital, this high-powered tournament could not be more socially inclusive. The brilliant atmosphere of the Royal Conservatoire will create a great fun, free event for all, with top-class tennis for players and a buzz of excitement for visitors. The inaugural PlaySportfest Open in 2012 proved a success and was followed by another hugely successful event last year, but now the organisers have taken the next step and will be welcoming players and supporters to what they're calling the world's first tennis festival. And the tournament is shaping up to be bigger, better and even more inclusive, too, with three fantastic events to keep families and youngsters entertained. SATUR
