the claimed error. VI. The trial court did not err in admitting into evidence Detective Sears' testimony as to what he had heard from the police dispatcher. Our Supreme Court has held that "[t]he admissibility of a statement is determined by whether it is spontaneous, whether it is volunteered or induced by a question or interrogation, or whether it is made in response to leading questions." Osborne v. State, 415 So.2d 1224, 1229 (Ala.Crim.App.1982). The record reflects that the admission of such statement was in compliance with the holding in Osborne, and the fact that the detective used the words "officer" and "informing the officer" rather than the exact words as specified in Osborne is of no consequence. VII. "We consider this because this is the only issue raised on appeal which was not properly preserved for review." Kennedy v. State, 472 So.2d 1092, 1097 (Ala.Crim.App.1984). The trial court erred in refusing to charge the jury on circumstantial evidence and on reasonable doubt. However, the error was not of such a nature as to require a reversal and a remand for a new trial. The defendant has failed to show that he was denied a fair trial because of the erroneous charge. We have held that, where the evidence is not contradicted or denied, and the same facts are shown by both the state and the defendant, the evidence is sufficient to sustain a conviction, "even though this Court might draw a different inference or feel that a different inference could be reasonably drawn." Spears v. State, 428 So.2d 174, 177-78 (Ala.Crim.App.1982); Smith v. State, 466 So.2d 1026 (Ala.Crim.App.1985). For the above-stated reasons, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed. AFFIRMED. All the Judges concur.
