Though there are many tools for image manipulation, Photoshop is widely considered the number one because the tools are sophisticated enough for professionals while also being available to the beginner. This book focuses on Photoshop and ways to use it for image manipulation. It introduces many techniques using the Basic and Expert Editing modes. So in this book, those are the modes that I use for the exercises. But most of the techniques in this book can be performed in Expert mode as well as Basic mode. Some of the techniques include the following: Liquify for grain reduction Multiply for brightness adjustments Dodge and Burn for greater contrast Sharpen for finer detail Blur for greater blurring Repair for blemishes Smudge for fine brush painting Emboss for texture Inner Glow to soften hard edges Color Adjust for color Adjustment Layers for additional changes It's also important to realize that a lot of image manipulation is done by applying filters, which are explained in Chapter 11. The project file, shown in Figure 1-1, is named Basic_2.psd. Make sure you save the project file as you work. This file contains the layered TIFF file shown in Figure 1-2 with the layers named. Figure 1-1: The PSD file of the Simple Image project. Figure 1-2: The TIFF image file of the Simple Image project. Opening Your Image In the New Image dialog box, shown in Figure 1-3, choose Photoshop from the File Type drop-down list and then browse to the file. By default, the Project or Open option is selected. Choose it to open the image. Figure 1-3: The File Open dialog box. Layering Your Image Layering is a key way to modify your image. In the New Image dialog box, shown in Figure 1-4, click the Layer button to open the Layers panel, shown in Figure 1-5. You can see that the default layer is named Default. You can also see that the background layer is labeled with a name that is generated automatically (the name is a combination of the image's filename and the current date in the format MM/DD/YYYY). To change a layer's name, click the layer in the Layers panel and then click the small triangle next to the layer's name. (Refer to Figure

Hello, thanks for your attention, dear readers! We really love to continue regularly our reviews, because you keep us up to date with the latest games. And one of the recent games we plan to talk about is just a beautiful outstanding masterpiece called Verdun. But to simply say it is a strategy game is not enough. It's more than that. It's like the perfect counter to the games like "World of Tanks", it shows the world that games don't have to be about military might. It is a beautiful game about art, cooperation and so many other things. It is worth to mention that we don't know how much will successful this game will be. But let's try to share something we know about it, so you could be a part of it. Maybe it's not a game you are considering, but what we recommend is the game I'm going to discuss with you in this week'

Team Stats PowerPlays Shorthanded Goals Penalties Face Offs Won SARASOTA, Fla. – The second-seeded Quinnipiac University men's hockey team scored a pair of second-period goals to defeat No. 15 Brown University, 4-3, in a Brown Tournament quarterfinal matchup at the Ralph Green Arena on Friday. Article Photos Brown starting goalie John Curry dives away from Quinnipiac starting goalie Jonathan Drouin during the first period Friday at the Ralph Green Arena. Curry turned away four of five shots for the Bears. -- Joe Somma The Bobcats (11-4-2) move on to face the winner of top-seeded Yale and No. 13 Harvard in Saturday's semifinals at 7 p.m. "Obviously, you want to go further in the tournament," senior forward Jake Guentzel said. "You could tell in the third period, we were really focused. We had a lot of energy, and that made a difference." Quinnipiac was without nine players for the majority of the contest as five of its six defensemen were knocked out by injuries. Junior Dan Kipner (Waterford, Mich.) was the lone healthy defensive presence for the Bobcats in net, making the difficult decision to play defense throughout the five-game tournament with just one-handed gloves. QUINNIPIAC HOCKEY: 1-0-1 2-0-0 3-0-0 4-0-0 5-0-0 Brown hockey came out with a strong start, taking a 1-0 lead just 12 seconds into the contest. Quinnipiac senior forward Parker Milner dropped a puck right to the stick of Brown senior defenseman Jordan Schmaltz, who then fired a shot that was partially blocked by Quinnipiac sophomore goaltender Nick Schneider. The puck bounced around the boards, and Schmaltz collected the loose puck and scored just 34 seconds into the contest. Before the Bobcats could realize they'd given up an early lead, junior forward Nick Desiderio (Syracuse, N.Y.) hammered home a rebound to regain the momentum, tying the score just before the midway mark. The Bobcats found themselves in another tough spot to begin the second period, as Brown tied the game up at 2-2 just over two
