1. Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a breakable-coupling device, and more particularly to a water-resistant breakable-coupling device which is disposed between a pair of connector housings and easily broken when a user presses it.

2. Description of Related Art U.S. Pat. No. 5,685,517 issued on Nov. 11, 1997 to Guo discloses a pair of couplings which is disposed between a pair of electric cable and an electric device respectively. When the pair of electric cable are pulled apart from the electric device, the cable-couplings are broken automatically. Thus, the electric cable are easily pulled out from the connector housings and the electric device are not firmly secured to the electric cable. U.S. Pat. No. 5,413,558 issued on May 9, 1995 to Browne discloses a pair of electric cable. An electric power is transmitted from the electric cable and to an electric device by a pair of couplings, such as fuse and socket. However, the fuse and socket are disposed on two side-by-side connectors, and they need to be operated together.

When a user mis-operates one of the fuse and socket, he may not disconnect one of the electric cable from one of the connectors. U.S. Pat. No. 5,203,680 issued on Apr. 20, 1993 to Ma discloses a portable telephone. In an embodiment of the portable telephone, two electric cables are directly disposed on two housings. Two ends of the two electric cables are attached to two connectors, and then the c9d1549cdd

Your goal is to make it to the end of the game without getting killed by the Destructor or dying by making mistakes in the maze. Each maze starts out easy, but as you make more mistakes it becomes harder and harder. You can pick up items from the environment to help you along. Many of the items in the mazes are mazes in their own right. In each maze that you play there are audio logs by people who have passed by you and had lost their life to the Destructor. Arriving home late one night, Jason notices something is wrong. His home is smaller than normal, has a new keypad, and the front door is missing. After he opens the door Jason finds his roommate has been murdered and a note on the kitchen counter says: "I had to disappear, some new friends need to be killed". Soon after Jason realizes he and his friends have no choice but to carry out the killing his roommate predicted so that they can escape the game. The player controlling Jason travels around various rooms on a quest to find and murder as many people as possible. As he makes his way through the house the player can collect various items to aid him in combatting the people he encounters in the house. 20 Feb 2016, 0 Comments UNKNOWN HALLS 2: THE HOUSE OF THE DESTINATORWelcome to the long anticipated follow-up to the success of the first game "Unknown Hales" The goal of the game is to travel to the end of the game, collecting scattered audio logs left by people Jason knows very well, collect the last audio log and reach out to Danny to wake him up.
