A: 9.0.1 PRO [CrackingPatching] [DLL] 6.8 MB 6.8 MB 6.8 MB Regards Victor Apple today seeded the fourth beta of an upcoming tvOS 10.1 update to developers, roughly a month after releasing the third tvOS 10.1 beta and while the update is largely a minor bug-fixing update, it does contain a new support for downloading podcasts through Apple Music and AirPlay. With the new build, developers can see that Apple's direct support for Spotify and Apple Music is now live in tvOS 10.1, along with an AirPlay 2 bug fix. Podcasts were first introduced in tvOS last fall via Apple Music, with developers able to stream episodes to Apple TV devices, but this is the first beta to include support for downloading podcasts to devices. Apple is surely aware of the criticism it has gotten for its failure to add official support for podcast download and playback to its platform in the past, so it remains to be seen if this will be included in a future tvOS update. Related:The invention relates to a storage subsystem, and more specifically, to a storage system having a storage controller and a processor. In a storage system, a controller needs to process an input/output (IO) request from a host and send
