And it's not because those people haven't been playing well. They have been playing well. They just haven't been going the right direction. They just weren't going in the right direction. And I think that's what I was, but now, with all the people that I'm around, it just makes it that much easier." The numbers say Woods has the leadership skills to succeed. He's not the first athlete with numbers that don't add up, and Woods knows that. "I look at Tiger's numbers; they don't match, but I would think a lot of people don't look
