Commissary features a vertically-folding shelf supported by a metal frame and paired with a caster to easily move the shelf from place to place. Ideal for temporary storage when traveling or if you have a limited floor space. Assembly required. These shelves are made of durable polypropylene. We love our new commissary shelves! They are perfect for holding small items that would normally take up unnecessary space. When you travel, it's so handy to have a little extra space that's out of the way and can be folded up when not in use. These are great for holding scissors, sewing items, jewelry, earrings, etc. Put the commissary on the top shelf and the smaller items below. When you're ready to use the commissary, just lift it down and roll it out of the way. I purchased the 20' deep version of this commissary. It's a great size and will hold a lot of small items. However, the shelf is not very deep (14 inches). So, if you need to store things on the bottom shelf, you may have to invest in a longer shelf, or buy a slightly deeper shelf. Additionally, there is no way to secure the bottom of the shelf other than the casters. I'm not sure how heavy the commissary is, but it tends to sag after a short period of time. Luckily for me, I don't have a lot of items to store, and it's not a problem with my limited space. I bought this to store my musical beads. My goal is to have the racks on the commissary since I like to see what I have. The commissary just doesn't make it. It's too flimsy and the beads easily roll off. I will return it. I love this thing, but it
