In a couple of cases we had some problems because we had the sorcerer at character creation and when it comes to the arcan trickster feat we have always had the sorcerer. Are there any rules statements that allow a sorcerer to use arcan trickster feat? A: From the Oracle text of the feat: You gain the benefits of arcane trickery while wearing no armor and while not wearing medium or heavy armor. Your Dexterity ability score increases by 1, to a maximum of 20. This increase can't exceed your sorcerer level. The Arcane Trickster feat replaces the arcane pool which is the original "arcane trickery" of the sorcerer and it sets out rules on when you can take it (you must be a sorcerer) and what its effects are. At this point in time, you can use this feat just like any other feat. A: You are right, the feat was taken from the arcane trickster since the rules have never stated that sorcerers couldn't take it. The feat now works as part of the sorcerer class, the word "arcane" has been removed and replaced by "sorcerer". Sources 1) SWTOR Weapon Proficiencies: Note: You can't use the same kind of weapon in two different ways. You can't use both a longsword and a quarterstaff for example. 2) Rules of magick #48: Here's the part that states that the sorcerer can use the Arcane Trickster feat: You gain the benefits of arcane trickery while wearing no armor and while not wearing medium or heavy armor. Your Dexterity ability score increases by 1, to a maximum of 20. This increase can't exceed your sorcerer level. 3) Rules of magick #52: The word "arcane" has been removed and replaced by the word "sorcerer".
